Presentation and links to communication highlights are linked in the agenda.

Comment: Busy as always!

Comment from Martha – Very good summary on all the work that has happened in the last month or so. Lia wanted to be here but her schedule would not allow it so she send her regrets.

Q: Why is Snowmass not in Snowmass, and it is in Seattle

A: Don't know exactly why it was moved but very successful meeting

Q: Is there any output from the Snowmass meeting, does it set the direction for the future?

A: It is a high-level summary and DOE uses that to set their goals for the next 10 years, science goals, budget priorities

A New Lederman Science Center

Ketevan Akhobadze

Presentation is linked in the agenda.

Q: How does one sign up for Artist in Residence Jr.?

A: Registration will be through Water Street Studios through their class catalog.

Q: Is the Lederman Science Center open now?

A: The Lederman Science Center is open 9-5 weekdays, 9-3 Saturdays. Currently the MakerSpace has designated programming.

Comment: I have visited the Teacher Resource Center in the past and found it overwhelming and hard to know how to start. The MakerSpace is an interesting way to use the space, more inviting and useful.

Connecting with Indigenous Communities
